The Latest Updates from the Samaritan Fund Foundation

Brett Morris

A Message from Our Founder and CEO

We are pleased to announce the first issue of The Good News, your quarterly update on all the amazing things we are accomplishing at the Samaritan Fund Foundation (SFF).

People facing medical hardships often become overwhelmed with the finances associated with battling disease. Many are more concerned with the finances associated with a disease than the actual disease itself! The mission of the SFF is to Give the Peace of Mind to Heal by providing financial assistance to those struggling in these situations.

Join our cause and give someone the peace of mind to heal. People are reaching out. Don't just pass by...Be A Samaritan!

From Our Participants and Partners:

"In the beginning, I thought, it's too good to be true, because you never get something for nothing. I think the program is great; it has literally helped me and my husband, giving such a big relief off of our shoulders. I was just telling my doctor yesterday that my worry about getting the medication I need to live is gone."

-Participant, IN

"I learned about the Samaritan Fund Program as an employer, and I find that offering this program to our employees is the best kind of help I can give them in a difficult time. The people, the process, and the mission are incredible. I hope other employers are able to offer this to their valued employees."

-Employer, MO

"As an agent, I thoroughly enjoyed working with the Samaritan Fund. Brett's team was extremely knowledgeable and helpful to both the client and especially the member. Their approach was caring and compassionate. This solution was a win-win, the member and the client both saved money and Brett's team handled everything!"
